Line 18 — Enter the gain from line 17 that will be reported on your federal income tax return for 2004. If only a portion of the property qualifies as your principal residence, enter the portion of gain allocated to the portion of the property that did not qualify as your principal residence and will be reported on your federal income tax return for 2004. Attach a statement to Form IT-2663 showing how you computed the allocation. If only a portion of the property is located inside New York State, enter the portion of the gain allocated to the property located inside New York State. Attach a statement to Form IT-2663 showing how you computed the allocation. A nonresident estate or trust must enter the amount of the gain, without regard to any distributions, from line 17.

Line 19 — When computing tax due on the gain from the transfer or sale of the real property, you must use the tax rate equal to the highest rate of tax for the tax year as set forth in the Tax Law, section 601. For tax year 2004 that rate is 7.7% (.077).

Line 20 — This is the amount of your required estimated tax payment. Enter this amount on the front page, Part II, line 3 and as your estimated tax payment on Form IT-2663-V on page 3. You must complete Form IT-2663-V, even if there is no payment of estimated personal income tax due.
